

Christmas Tree Art Competition

As it would be difficult to have a Christmas Tree Festival this year a Christmas Tree Art Competition is being held as part of the St James' Christmas Fair.

Who can take part?

Everyone!

There will be three sections:

- Adults
- Teenagers/ children
- Pre-school children

What can you do?

- A painting
- A collage
- A model

Paintings and collages should be no larger than A3 and can be in any medium.

All entries will be collected from you, photographed and put on our Facebook page and the website. We will also produce a printed copy.

All entries need to be available by November 14th ready for judging.
There will be a prize for each section.

Contact Linda Pitt 744 6777 for more details